

NED UNIVERSITY OF ENGINEERING & TECHNOLOGY
DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER & INFORMATION SYSTEMS ENGINEERING

SOFTWARE MODELING AND DESIGN COMPETITION

Rules and Regulations

1. Only students of undergraduate universities/institutes are allowed to register.
2. The competition is on individual basis.
3. Any participant may be asked to show his/her university ID card at any time during competition.
4. All teams are strictly advised to remain well-conducted and maintain the discipline any one found guilty may lead to disqualification.
5. A reference manual for UML diagram shapes will be provided. Other than that No books, reference guides, training manuals, personal notes or any other written material are allowed.

6. Use of laptops, net books, palmtops, mobile phones, USBs, mp3 players/iPods, calculators and other devices are not allowed.

7. TechElite'11 team will not take any responsibility of any belongings of participants.

8. Any participant if found using any unfair mean will result in disqualification of whole team.

9. Once the competition starts, No participant is allow to enter or leave the lab.

10. Participants will be responsible of their belongings.

11. Any amendment, change or addition to rules and regulations can be made without any prior notice to the participants.

12. The Results and decisions will be final and cannot be challenged.

13. All teams are advised to reach at 8:30 am sharp at the registration booth of TechElite'11 which will be situated at NED University Gate-1.